

David Jansheski

ARTIST STATEMENT

Flora, fauna and architecture have been the three themes that have occurred repeatedly within my work over a thirty-year period. These subjects that come from my observation of our environment have continued to inspire and fuel the conceptual content behind the relief prints, collages and mixed media works.

It is my ongoing attempt to continue this process of exploration—bringing to life my interpretations, in hopes of creating a vision of unique and or imaginary worlds.